Chapter 1 by Tubaiste

Looking down at all the pieces she knew without thinking where each one belonged. In the same empty room she drew the same deep breath which lead to the rebuilding. She never let anyone see how truly broken she felt inside. INSANITY! she screams silently. Leaving everything behind she left to find her own happiness. For the first time she looked straight ahead looking back carried the risk of finding a reason to stay Leaving comfort far behind next to her mask she felt more free with each step taken and a change to be who she was and to be happy for the first time. Oh, beautiful leap of fate I am not afraid to fall.
